

FIG. 1.9 Profile of the Rio Machado showing the morphology of its floodplain and main channel and the location of flooded forests across the transect. The graph in the upper right corner shows the approximate fluctuation of water level during the year with the lowest point beginning at 0 m.